We now offer Remote Printing!

We now offer our patrons the ability to print from anywhere in a few easy steps...

- Attach the documents you would like to print to an email and send it to:
solomonwrightprinter@gmail.com
- You will receive a reply email containing a print release code.
- Visit the library to enter your code into our printer and print your documents.
- For curbside service, call the library and let us know your code. We will print your documents and place them in a sealed bag on our curbside cart for pickup.

You can also bring a USB stick with you to the library and plug it directly into our printer to bypass the email process.

Please call the library at 802.823.5400 if you have any questions!

As the weather warms, the SWPL will begin offering outdoor programming. Please keep in mind that all library event attendees will be required to wear masks and social distance, regardless of vaccine status, even outdoors.

Thank you to all our patrons for your willingness to follow the current Covid-19 rules. We are so excited to welcome you back to the library in-person, and we look forward to seeing you at some of our upcoming events!

Please contact us, or visit our website for more information on what we are doing to keep our patrons safe at the library.

MAY IS ALL ABOUT THE TREES, THE BIRDS, AND THE BEES!

May 7: Arbor Day

Beginning on Friday, May 7, and continuing all month, the Solomon Wright will be offering free Vermont tree guides and fun tree scavenger hunt pages. Pick up materials from our circulation desk, or ask for curbside pickup.

Keep the tree love going by joining VT Urban and Community Forestry (UCF) for their "Ask an Arborist" webinar series, every Friday in May at 10:00 AM.

For more information and to register, visit:

May 15: Birdwatching

Join the SWPL and guest speaker Noah Henkenius of the Berkshire Environmental Action Team (BEAT) on Saturday, May 15 for a guided birdwatching hike and talk. We will meet in Bennington at the Mile-Around Woods at 7am for a two-hour birdwatching hike, followed by a 10am talk on the SWPL lawn. Rain date June 12, 2021.

Max 10 participants. Please visit our website, or contact us by phone or email, to register for this event by 5/12/21!

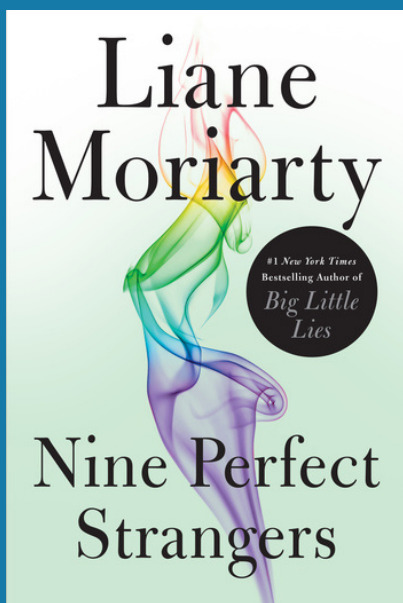

May 22: Bee Keeping

Local beekeeper Jeanne Davis will be visiting the SWPL on Saturday, May 22 from 12:00-1:00 to talk about Bees and what we can do to protect our pollinators! Bring your curiosity, and join us to learn about bees, view a model hive and sample some local honey. Rain date: June 5, 2021

Max 20 participants. Please visit our website, or contact us by phone or email, to register for this event by 5/19/21!

Community Book Review

by Michelle Despard

Nine Perfect Strangers by Liane Moriarty is a novel that has a little something for everyone. The story takes place at a spa retreat where nine perfect strangers, thus the title, meet. Everyone has their own reasons as to why they are attending. Meanwhile, those who operate the spa have their own motives and pasts that eventually intertwine with those of the spa guests. Readers will find themselves surprised and perhaps unsettled by the end of the story. Moriarty never disappointed with Big Little Lies and continues to deliver in Nine Perfect Strangers.
